OTHER EXPENSES TO CONSIDER

Activities	Materials for special activities, hobbies, and other activities not included in the regular curriculum.
Damages	The School assumes all normal wear and tear, but students should understand that they are responsible.
Private Music Lessons	Private music lessons are billed in 4 installments over the course of the year ($2,205 per year).
School Store	Individual purchases including textbooks, personal supplies, and athletic items (apart from uniforms and equipment supplied by the School). CT sales tax is charged on taxable purchases.
Testing	Charges for aptitude and achievement tests administered by the School, testing at centers for SSAT and special testing required by preparatory schools or requested by parents.
Transportation	Transportation for medical visits, to and from airports, trains, and buses for vacations and weekends.
Trips	Tickets, meals, transportation for special trips, entertainment, and secondary school admission interviews. Additionally, the Ninth Grade will be charged for the annual June academic trip.
Spending money	While the School provides full meals and necessary services, there may be times when students will wish to use discretionary funds for a variety of reasons (e.g., snacks, haircuts, extra supplies).
1:1 Tutoring	Optional instruction (supportive and remedial). Yearly expenses are as follows: one appointment/week: $2,825, two appointments/week: $5,680, three appointments/week: $8,495, four appointments/week $11,387. These are billed in three installments over the course of the year.
Weekend Activities	Costs for boarding student programs and trips over weekends that are not entirely covered by the School. Costs average from $20-$80 per month.
Accident Insurance	For domestic students (optional). Covers $1,000 of eligible expenses per incident for a cost of $100.
International Health Insurance	Required for international students and purchased through the IMS Portal. Costs are as follows: 10-month plan: $2,595, 12-month plan: $2,895
